Defending Sacred Ground

Pastor Wyatt realized a dream while building bridges last month on a 10-day visit to Jerusalem and other locations in Israel. Although visiting sacred locations like Gethsemane and Calvary; walking on holy paths to Jesus' tomb or the 'wailing' wall and viewing artifacts preserved from the first century were part of the itinerary, Pastor Wyatt's purpose was much bolder. Under the banner of Christians United for Israel (CUFI), Wyatt along with a committed delegation shared our Christian belief with middle easterners while demonstrating the love Apostle Paul describes in 1 Corinthians. This sharing of faith: one Lord, one Faith, one Baptism opened doors for discussion and hospitality.

CUFI is the largest pro-Israel organization in the United States with over two million members. Their mission is to provide a national association through which all can act in support of Israeli matters and biblical issues. Pastor Wyatt's and CCC's affiliation with this global organization broadens our world view for uniting His church through action and Truth. Pastor Wyatt believes we will prosper by association.

One of the more notable experiences on this rich excursion was to witness young soldiers defending the borders. As they drilled and carried out their assignments, Pastor Wyatt was able to view, first-hand, the Jewish culture of Malchia, Hebrew word for 'God is King'. Israeli Jews do everything in service unto the Lord. A tour in the military is performed without dissention. Attention to detail and dedication to duty while serving in defense of a most vulnerable nation is perhaps their greatest honor. All action and service is performed to a level of precision that can only be achieved while serving our God, our King, placing Him first. Pastor Wyatt states, "With the knowledge we have of Jesus, our commitment to service unto the Lord should shine beyond that of any Israeli soldier".

Pastor Wyatt's heart and hard-drive are filled with magnificent images from this once in a lifetime experience yet the door is just opening with the possibilities to be found in our relationship with CUFI. To learn more about CUFI, their mission and the trip, we encourage those motivated to visit the CUFI web-site at www.cufi.org.

Inspired at NY Prayer Conference:

On Friday January 16 a small group of CCC citizens traveled to Bethel United Pentecostal Church in Old Westbury Long Island for the Refiner's Fire Prayer Conference. It was an inspiring evening of connection with the Lord. The quartet was graced by a spirited collection of speakers yet came to hear the Keynote address by international missionary Reverend James Corbin, whose message "Thy Kingdom come", filled the sanctuary with the Glory of God. This meeting is hosted by the NY-metro District and is an annual event.

Hosting our Lord!

Vineland and Englewood are just two of the locations young believers traveled from on Saturday morning March 7 to attend the Metro-NJ District Youth Conference here at Christ Centered Church. We hosted a full house of motivated young people that worshipped and praised the Lord from 10 am until 4 in the afternoon. A full day of activities were planned by District President Scott Costa and Secretary Timothy Ball. Pastor Wyatt was seen with a bigger grin than usual after participating in such a youthful/youth-filled Praise event.

Sunday school begins!

On Sunday March 1 our long awaited children's study program got underway. Two separate age groups (under six and 10-12's) participate in a 45 minute classroom session under the careful direction of Sister Aisha Marshall and Sister Sylvia Anderson. Each group has a youth assistant and adult instructors leading this important foundational work. Curriculum materials have been supplied by United Pentecostal Church International. Instruction begins at 9:30 am and ends at 10:15 am followed by our worship service at 10:30. If you want to enroll your child or have questions please contact our Lead instructor Aisha directly. Pastor Wyatt is offering an adult classroom session during these same times for parents who bring their children early.

Many warmed by Winter Fire

The annual Winter Fire conference was held in Hartford CT. this year from Thursday February 19 through Saturday February 21. Although the drive was a bit longer than other regional meetings, not one participant returned disappointed. A strong number of CCC citizens made the worthwhile journey.

Pastor Wyatt presented at a workshop to other pastors, sharing his method and God-infused ideas for starting a new church. Other workshops and noted presenters filled the three day event yet everyone was moved by the sermon delivered by Pastor Jerry Jones. His message "All for the Glory of God" hit an emotional note for all CCC citizens in attendance. Reverend Wyatt exclaimed, "Jerry Jones is certainly able to rightly divide the word of Truth!"

Make plans now for Winter Fire 2016 scheduled again for CT and once again in February.

Challenged to grow: Building a foundation!

"A church will only be as strong as the foundation, created in faith, by the men of our congregation" says Pastor Wayne Wyatt. With that important premise in mind, all adult male citizens of CCC are invited to attend a series of book discussions aimed at solidifying the direction and foundation of our developing culture. The group initially decided to read and discuss Spiritual Leadership by J. Oswald Sanders. Our first session drew a dozen citizens and enrollment is open. Pastor Wyatt strongly encourages all who can possibly attend to join us. Meetings are the second and fourth Tuesday of each month at 7:30 pm. Changes to the schedule are announced here and at each Sunday service.
