First Fruit

The youngest citizens of CCC began Sunday School classes in March under the directed instruction of Sisters Aisha Marshall and Sylvia Anderson. Students have been faithful in attendance and classroom time has been purposeful, using materials commissioned by United Pentecostal Church International. Worksheets, craft projects and homework assignments have been introduced and embraced by our students in addition to classroom lessons.

The intention of such a program is to build a strong foundation in order to bolster an enlightened walk with Christ. Early efforts by our instructors are already bearing fruit with presentations during worship service, art work that travels home and an enthusiasm to participate by the children that is obvious. The evidence from this collaborative effort brings joy for all!

Our Lord asks that we share with him the fruit of our labor. In addition, He asks that it be our best product, our most prized work... a valued outcome. These efforts please Him.

Our Junior and Nursery groups deliver joy to the Lord while in study and while in practice sessions, perfecting tasks, required by our instructors. These 'gifts' of time and talent honor and please God in a most obvious way. The abundant life God has promised comes through just such an offering. The value added in these additions to class instruction is a stronger foundation to the "House" each will build with our Lord.

As teachers 'plow in hope' (1Corinthians 9:10) they cultivate a future (Matthew 12:32) for their charges. Bearing John 15:4-5 in mind, this instruction is not only purposeful, it has the potential to be everlasting. Pastor Wyatt believes in this program as an integral first step for our young church. He said " The future of our Apostolic Pentecostal movement is to raise up a new generation of church leaders... we begin by doing just this right here at home, in each of our own houses and here inside the walls of our Church"

The initial excitement of the kids program has spilled over to the parents. An adult Discipleship series, taught by Pastor Wyatt, got underway just a few weeks after the kids started their study and attendance is strong. Everyone is after a firmer foundation for our Apostolic journey!

Together as One

Our Men's study group was well represented at the NJ

Metro District Annual Men's Conference on Friday and Saturday May 15 and 16. Attendees were engaged by Dr. Tallmadge French, a noted author and biblical scholar. Brother French shared the details of his unique doctoral research on the Oneness movement with passion and conviction. His style motivated men from all over the state to echo his enthusiasm and determination. A graduate of Wheaton College and Birmingham University (UK), a professor at Indiana Bible College in Indianapolis and Pastor of Apostolic Tabernacle Church in Atlanta; Dr. French illustrated most effectively the biblical truth of One God rather than the Trinity believed in by many Christian faith groups. The One God doctrine is the fastest growing Christian movement in the world. Dr. French shared documented revival evidence of spiritual conversion in every nation. His heartfelt stories of sacrifice sometimes leading to death in order to worship Jesus as God were riveting. Dr. French maintains relationship with apostolic leaders and One God believers everywhere infusing his research with compelling facts and testimony. Our CCC citizens benefited hearing the scripture in support of this Pentecostal doctrine.

At the Heart of Relationship

James Hughes Ph.D told us relationship is at the core of our Christian walk during his weekend visit to the Garden State on March 20 and 21. Dr. Hughes presented a marriage seminar here at CCC as part of his three church tour, sharing a biblical message of respect, love and submission toward others. Dr. Hughes stated it is "our obligation" to model Jesus' concept of the bridegroom and the church as a marriage relationship. Jesus treats us like His bride and so we must do the same toward others. Special regard for all earthly brethren demonstrates reverence to God.

According to Pastor Wyatt, " Dr. Hughes has first hand life experiences as a backdrop for his message of forgiveness and tolerance. As a compassionate, loving Christian he uses scriptural truth to illustrate God's desire for each one of us" With university degrees in Math, Divinity, Psychology and Counseling; Pastor Hughes draws from a wide range of skill, insight and preparation to deliver an earnest message of compromise and humility for our successful Earthly journey. The CCC citizens able to attend this most foundational two-day program heard practical applications for God's command to love one another. Dr. Hughes' weekend in New Jersey was rounded out by preaching the Sunday sermon at two additional Metro-District churches where he made a similar strong impression

NJ Metro-District Annual Meeting

The NJ Metro District Annual meeting was held in Secaucus on April 10-11. The keynote address at this critical assembly was delivered by UPCI Superintendent David Bernard, who underscored a strong message about Revival and our responsibilities in the end times of our Apostolic walk. The weekend included an Ordination ceremony of Pastor Warren White (guest Pastor here at CCC), reelection of Pastor Wyatt to the NJ Directorship of North American Missions and the usual business gatherings that fuel the work we commit to as an organization. A highlight on the weekend was a jammin' Praise Service where our own praise singers; Patrice, Aisha, Janese and Nicola added to the energy and celebration in our Lord. Deacon Scarlett added his horn to the lively band for a memorable evening for all.

I have broken the arm of Pharaoh...

Pastor Jimmy Toney brought a message of triumph for citizens of our District from Lexington, KY on Friday night June 12 and followed with a day of instruction on Saturday the 13th. Delivering his sermon and program from The Apostolic Church of Irvington, this skilled preacher was on his second visit to NJ hosted by our own New Jersey North American Missions (NAM) division. Pastor Toney used Ezekiel 30:21-26 to illustrate how God has already overcome our enemy and the victory is certain with faith and insight into God's plan for us. The sword can be ours and it is all a matter of perspective.

Pastor Wyatt counts Reverend Toney among a rare group of preachers saying " These times require a new approach and a new style of delivering His word. Pastor Toney is a skilled and creative Biblical messenger who has an ordained understanding of scripture and a unique ability to reach all those who are seeking Christ". Pastor Toney came seeking to inspire disciples who feel called to plant churches in new cities. An answer to God's desire for saving souls is to build churches. The Apostolic Pentecostal mission is to reach lost souls. Starting a new church allows more seekers to follow and hear God's word.
