

ARE YOU THIRSTY?

Scripture Focus:

Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water. The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water? Art thou greater than our father Jacob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattle? Jesus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again: But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life. The woman saith unto him, Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw.

John 4:10-15 10

Quenching your thirst...

This woman was thirsty spiritually and didn't know how to quench that inner Spiritual emptiness. We cannot allow our physical need to cause us to overlook our spiritual need. As reference, Jesus was thirsty and hungry when He met that woman at the well, but instead of focusing on His own need, He focused on that woman and her bondage, her need. The Fountain of Living Water Jesus promises will overcome feelings of unblessed, unhappy, doubting, weak/weary, overtaken by sin, unloved and more. It is this fountain that Jesus has opened up which is our answer.

We will experience spiritual fulfillment when there is a flowing of the Holy Ghost in our life. The gift that Jesus gives — is a spring gushing up to eternal life — it suggests the availability, accessibility, and abundance of the divine life for Christians. We will be following His plan.... Forever.

Other Related Scriptures:

In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, if any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink. He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water. (But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet glorified.)

John 7:37-39 37

And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

Acts 2:1-4 2:1

In John 7:37-38 when Jesus said ...if any man thirst let him come unto me and drink... as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water He was not talking about natural water, He was talking about the Holy Ghost, a drink that satisfies beyond any earthly refreshment. It is God's good pleasure to give us the Holy Ghost with two conditions, that we believe and we are thirsty for it. If we have a thirst for the Holy Ghost God will quench our thirst for it.
